

Supplementary Materials

Questionnaire Items

Identification with the movement

To what extent do you agree with the following statements (1, totally disagree; 7, totally agree).

- I identify with the organizations that organised this demonstration.
- I sympathize with the organizations who called for the demonstration.
- I feel represented by the environmental organizations who organized the demonstration.
- I identify with the environmental/climate movement.

Identification as an environmentalist

To what extent do you agree with the following statements (1, totally disagree; 7, totally agree).

- I consider myself an environmentalist and/or environmental activist
- I am satisfied with being an environmentalist and/or environmental activist
- I identify with other environmentalists and/or environmental activists
- I feel close to environmentalists and/or environmental activists

Perceived effectiveness of demonstrations

To what extent do you believe this demonstration will be effective in the following five issues (1, not at all to 7, very much):

- to pressure the government.
- Influencing public opinion.
- Influencing the international political leaders.
- Cancelling the oil and gas exploration and extraction contracts.
- Influencing new policies on climate change and environmental issues.

Self-focused anger

When thinking about how governments deal with environmental issues, to what extent do you feel: (1, not at all to 7, very much)

- Angry.
- Furious.

Moral motivation

To what extent do you agree with the following statements (1, totally disagree to 7, totally agree):

- I feel morally obligated to participate in actions related with climate change.
- How I position myself toward the environment/climate reflects my principles and convictions.

- How I position myself toward the environment/climate reflects my beliefs about what is right or wrong.
- My attitudes toward the environment/climate reflect my values and moral convictions.
- My behaviours toward the environment/climate reflect my values and moral convictions.