APPENDIX A

Table A1.

Table of the 12 Words/Expressions From Which Participants had to Choose the Four Most Characteristic and Four Least Characteristic of Risk in the Cameroonian Context.

Word/expression	Most characteristic	Least characteristic
Civil war
Corruption
Criminality
Financial investment
Health system
Insecurity
Political uncertainty
Poor governance
Poverty
Terrorism

Graph A1: Risk representation according to similarity analysis (IRaMuTeQ) of free associations.

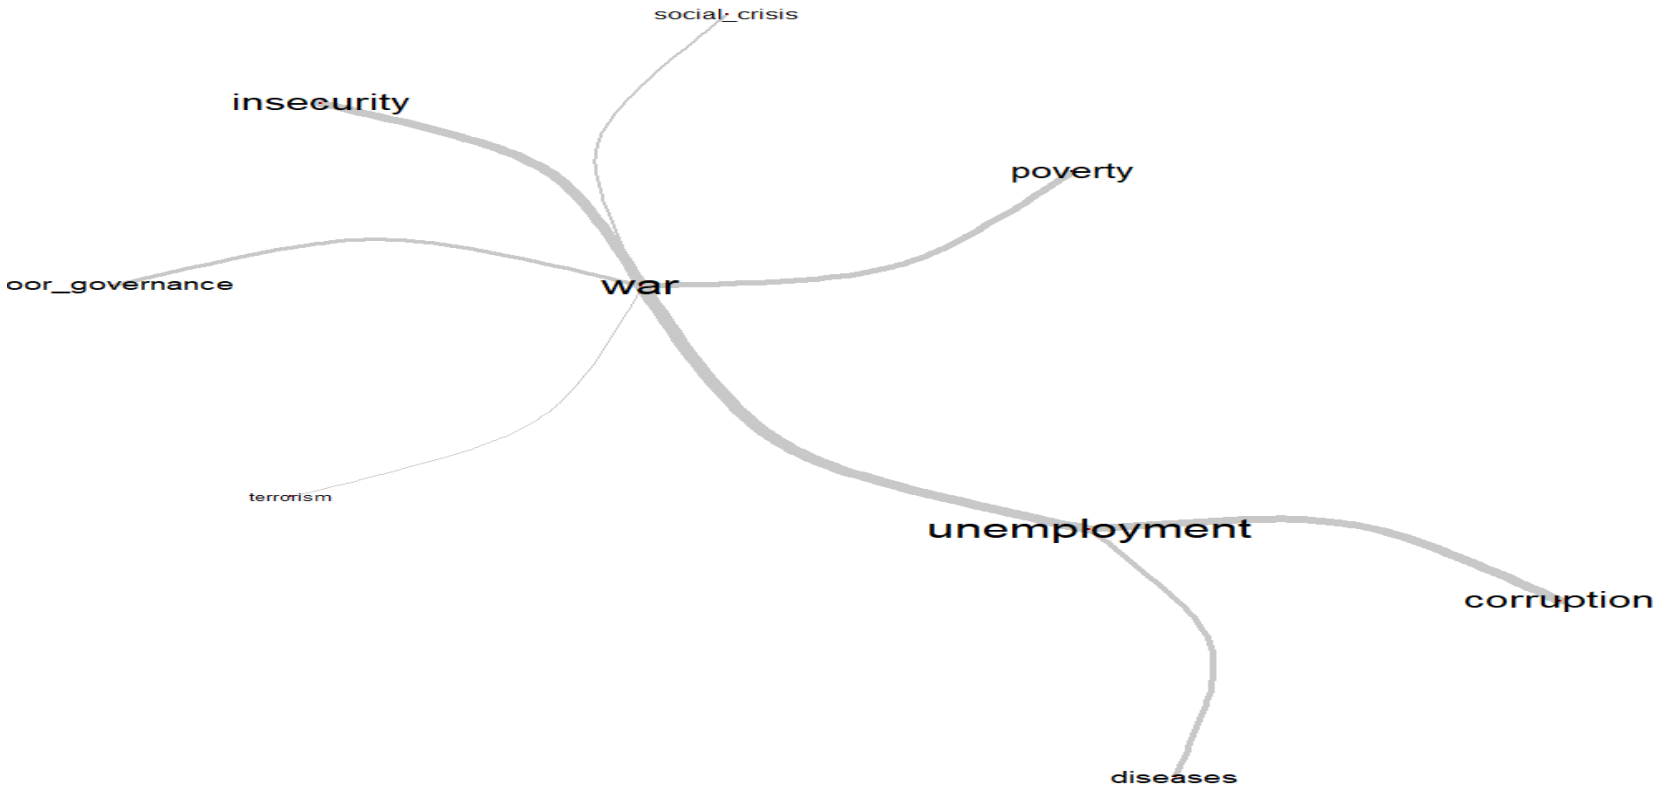

Figure A1: Curves of the core elements of the social representation of risk according to item scores on the characterization questionnaire.

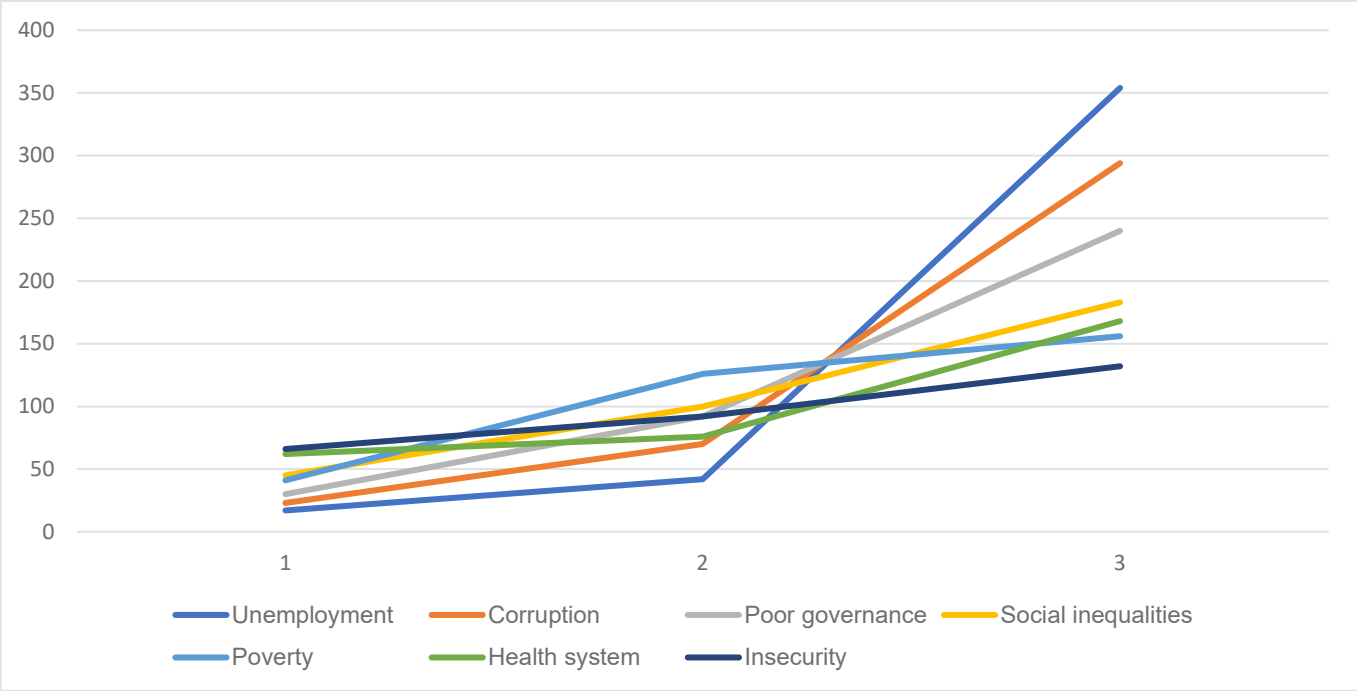

Figure A2: Curves of the Peripheral Elements of the Social Representation of Risk According to Item Scores on the Characterization Questionnaire.

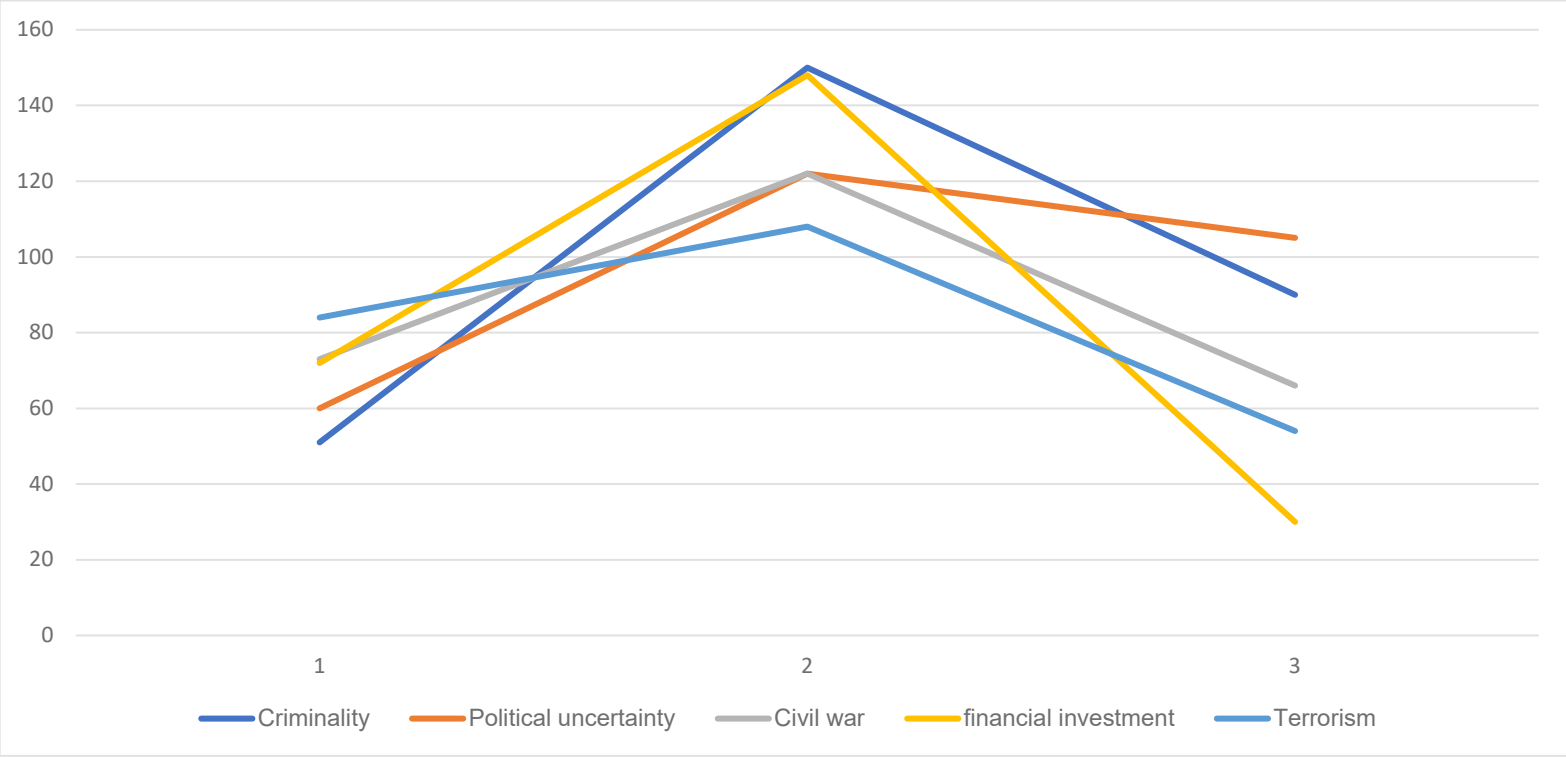
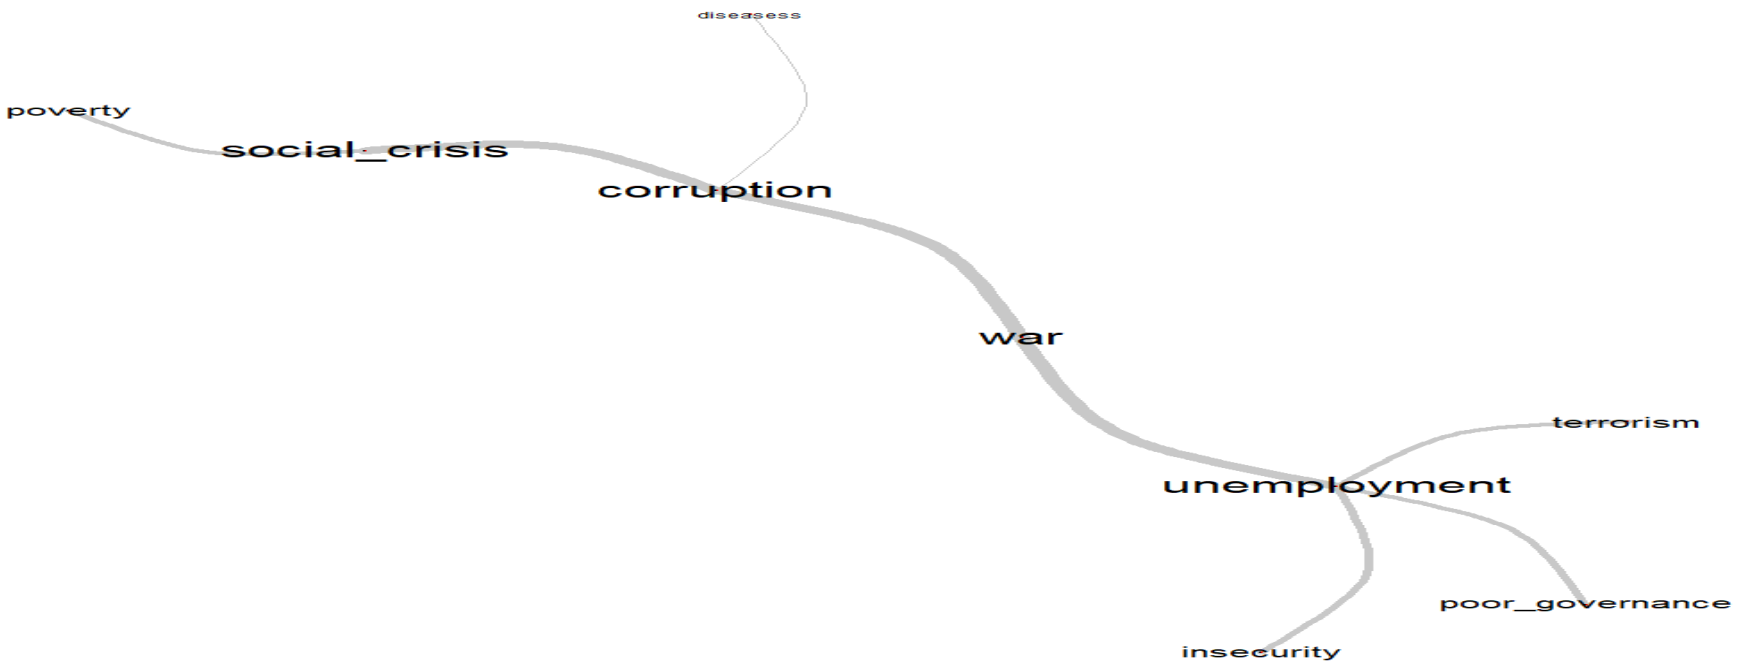
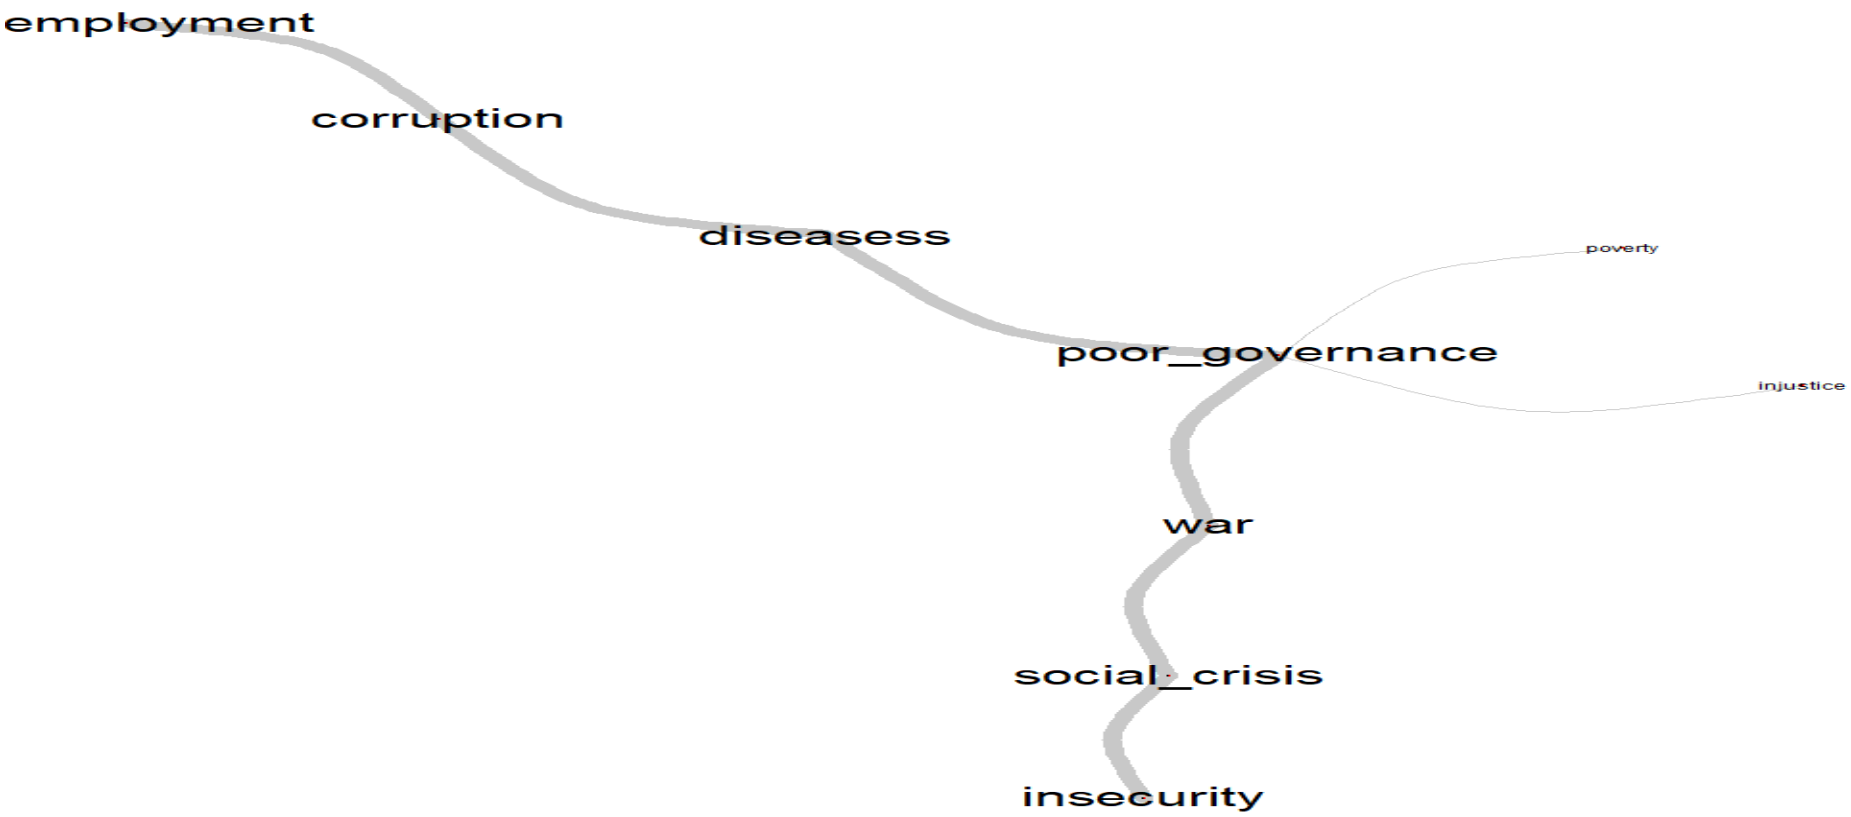


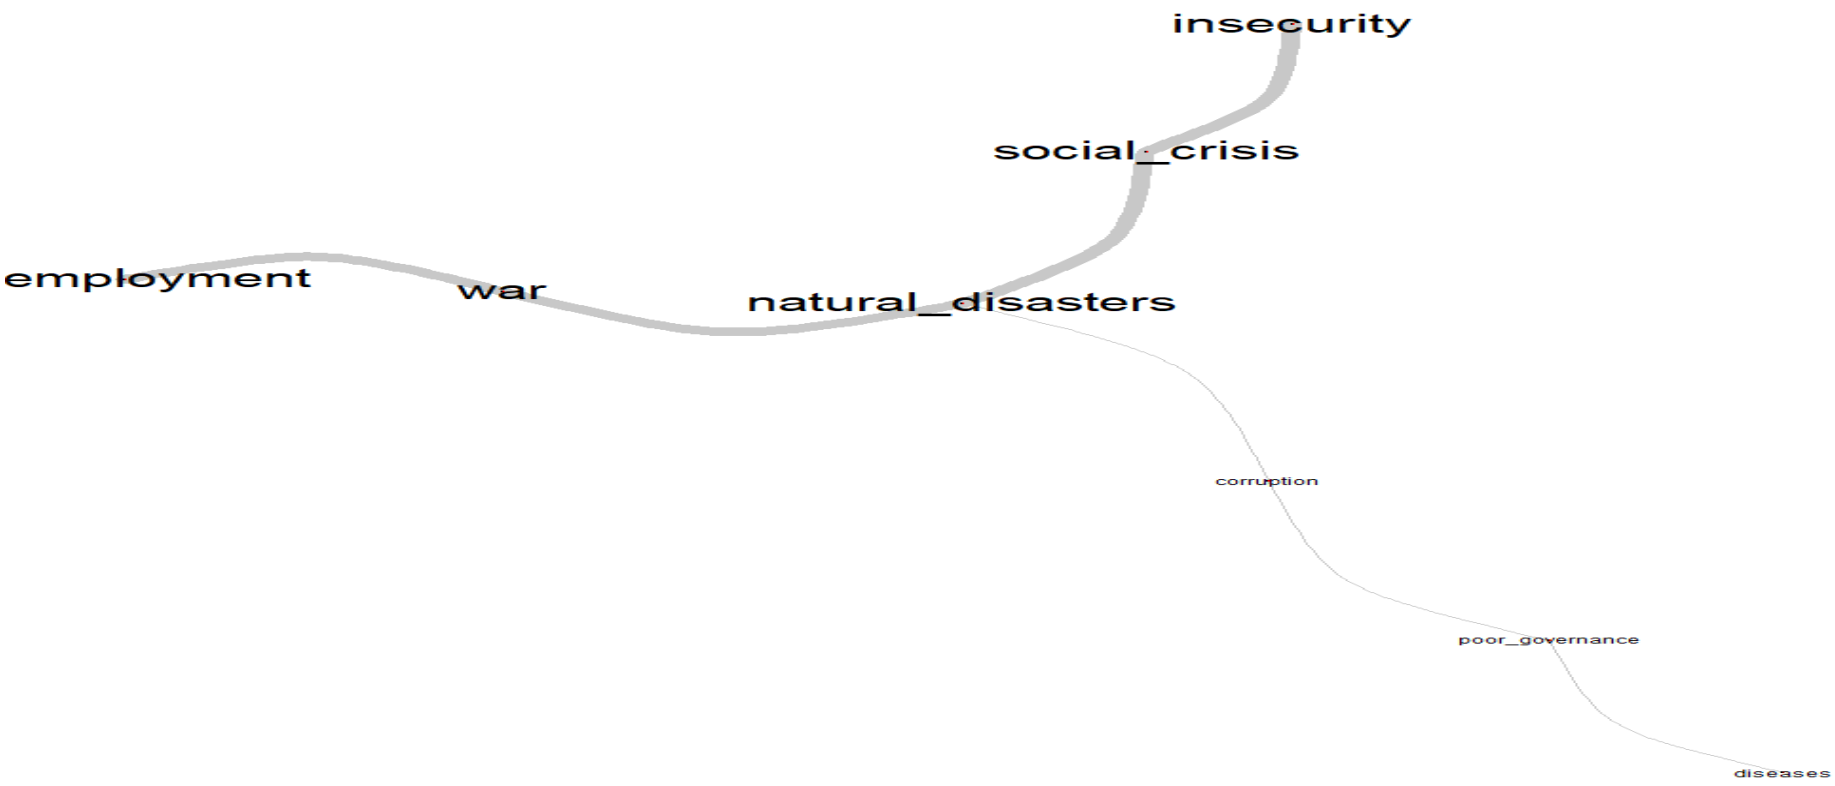
Graph A2: Risk representation for Fang-Beti participants according to Similarity Analysis (IRaMuTeQ) of free associations.



Graph A3: Risk representation for Grassfields participants according to similarity analysis (IRaMuTeQ) of free associations.



Graph A4: Risk representation for Sudano-Sahelian participants according to similarity analysis (IRaMuTeQ) of free associations.



Graph A5: Graph showing risk representation for Coastal participants according to similarity analysis (IRaMuTeQ) of free associations.

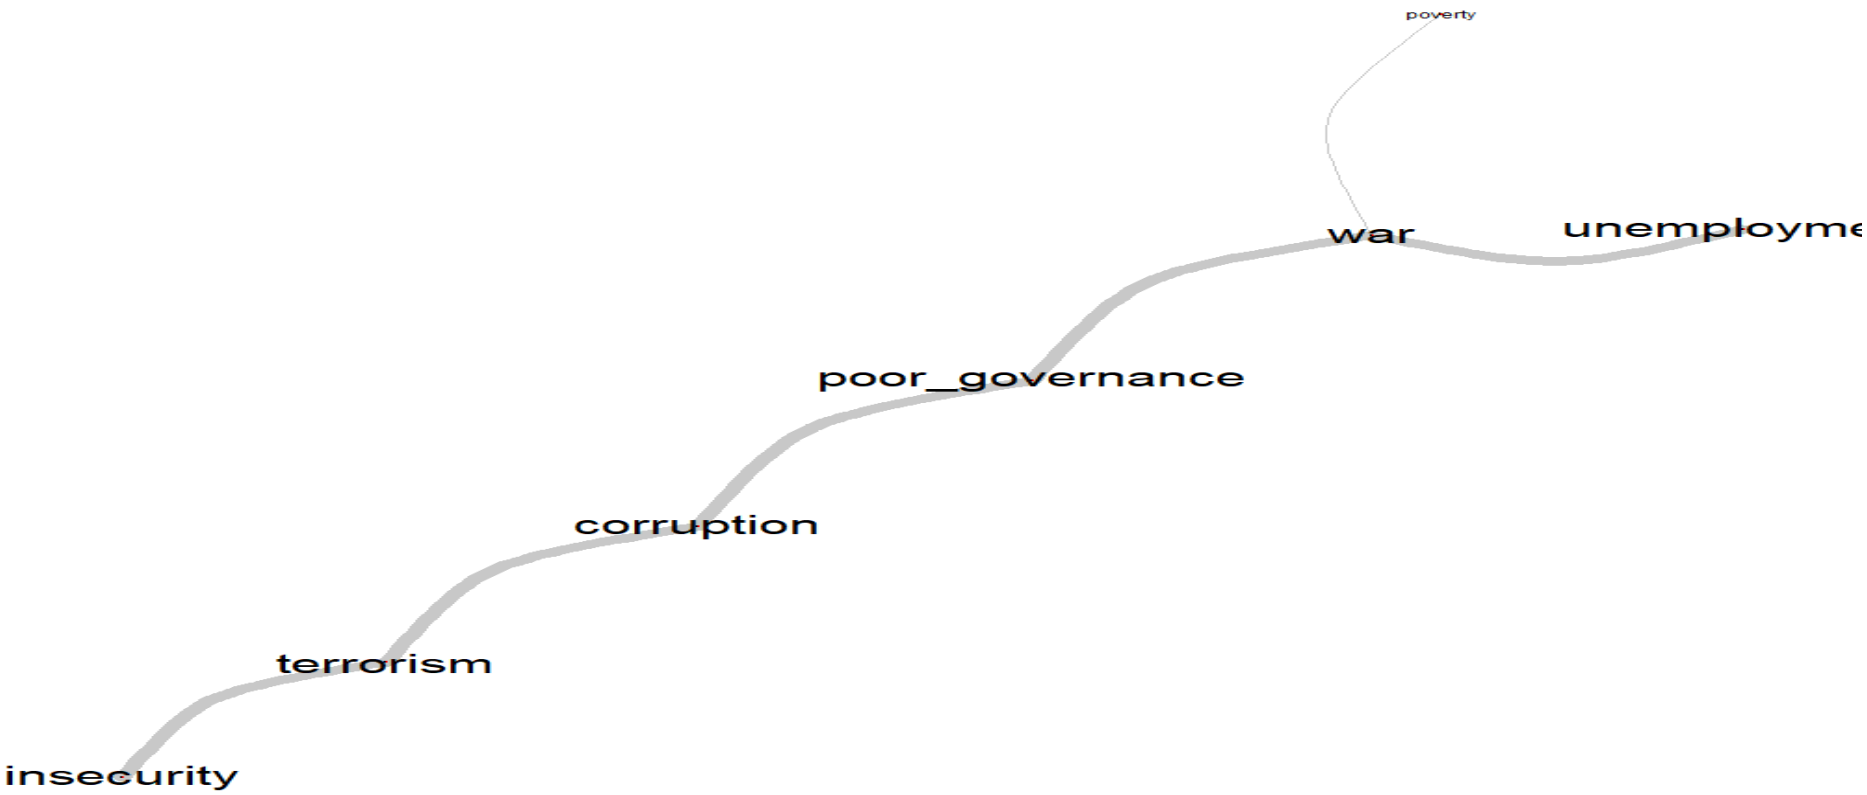


Figure A3: Core Elements of the Grassfields Participants' Social Representation of Risk, Based on Item Scores on the Characterization Questionnaire.

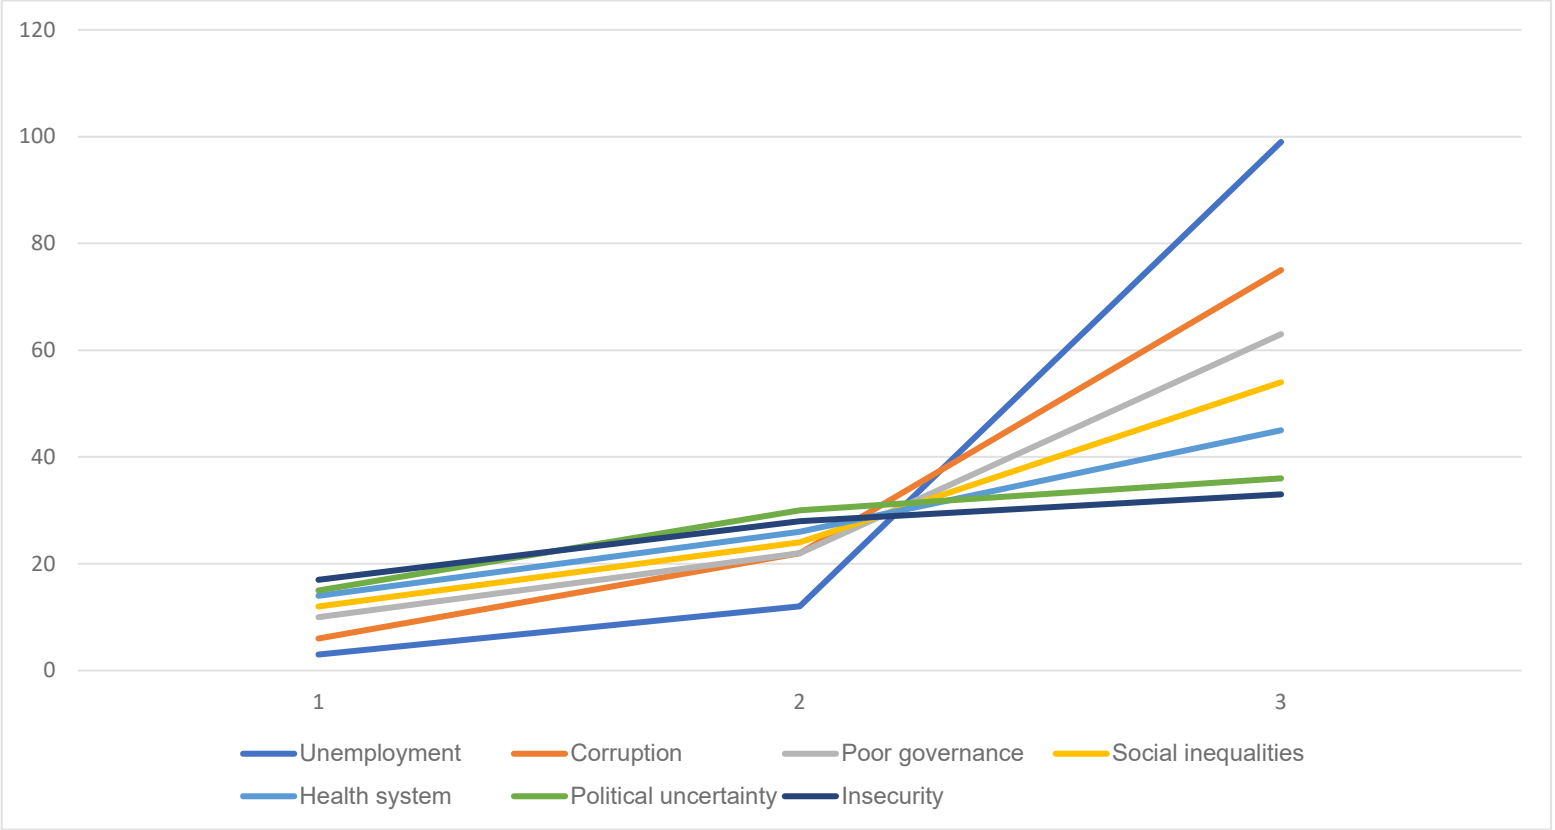

Figure A4: Core Elements of the Fang-Beti Participants' Social Representation of Risk, Based on Item Scores on the Characterization Questionnaire.

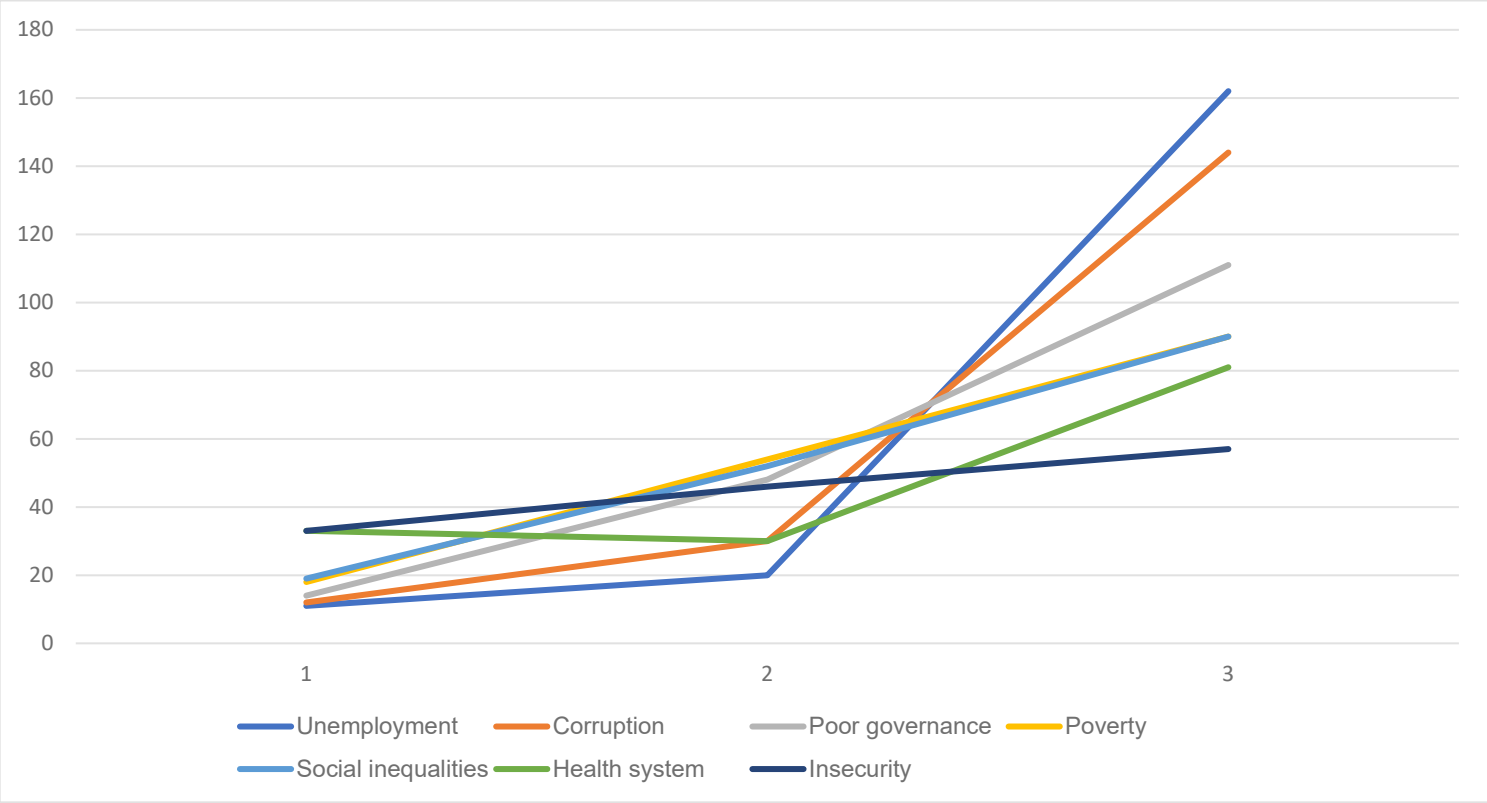

Figure A5: Core Elements of the Sudano-Sahelian Participants' Social Representation of Risk, Based on the Item Scores on the Characterization Questionnaire.

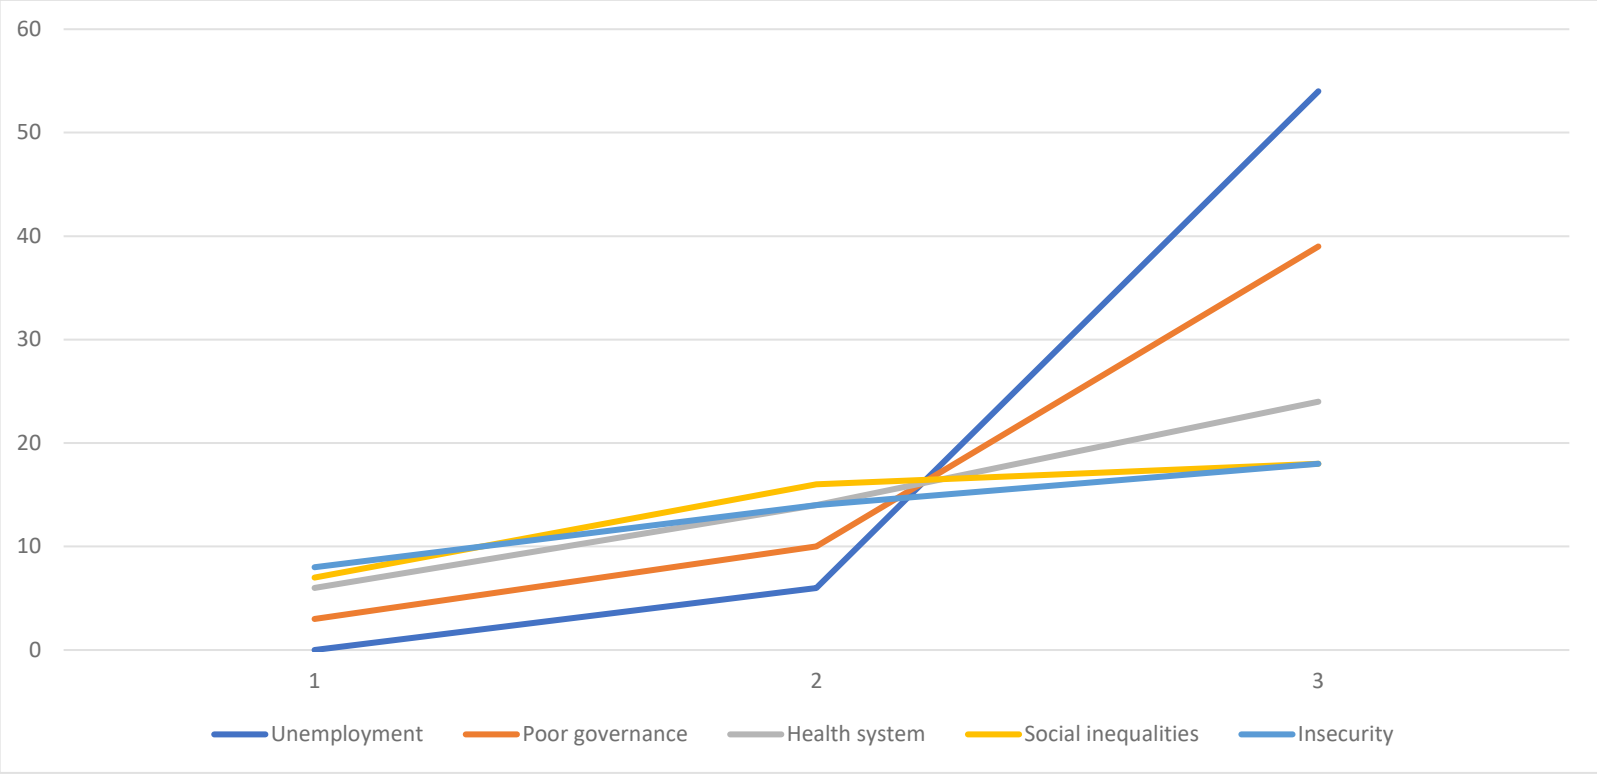

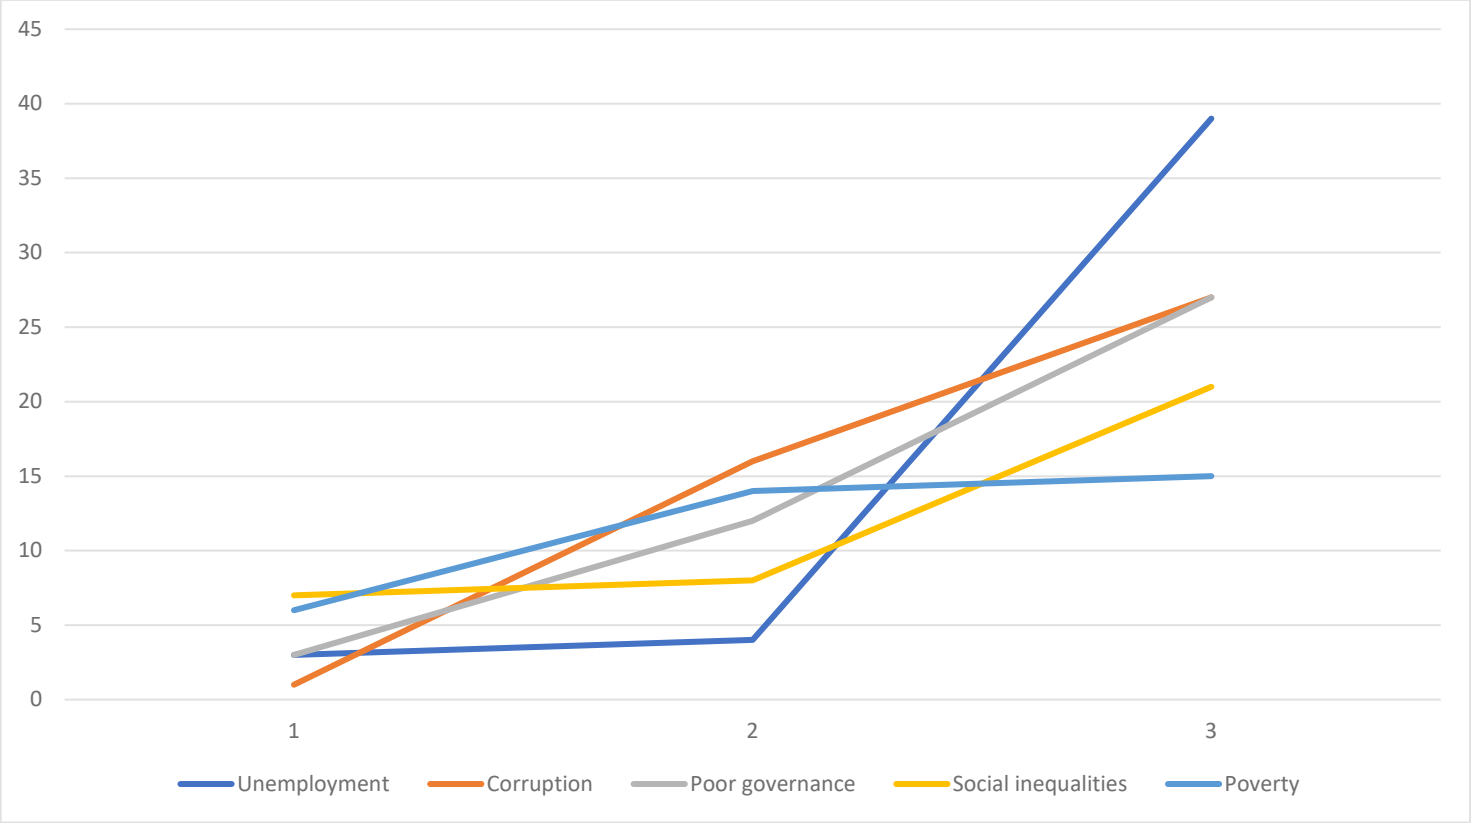

Figure A6: Core Elements of the Coastal Participants' Social Representation of Risk, Based on Item Scores on the Characterization Questionnaire.